

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 09, 2009

GLOBAL President Selected as Homeland Security Advisor and Deputy National Security Advisor for Counterterrorism

McLean, VA – January 09, 2009 – John O. Brennan, President of The Analysis Corporation (GLOBAL TAC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Global Strategies Group (North America) Inc. and part of the Global Strategies Group www.globalgroup.com, has been selected by President-Elect Obama to serve in his Administration as Homeland Security Advisor and Deputy National Security Advisor for Counterterrorism.

Since joining GLOBAL TAC in November 2005, Mr. Brennan has leveraged his knowledge of intelligence matters and his expertise on terrorism and security issues to guide the company's rapid corporate growth and innovative business strategy. Under Mr. Brennan's direction, GLOBAL TAC's contribution to the national security and counterterrorism community has made it one of the most in-demand companies for US government and commercial work.

"We wish John Brennan well in this important position and are thrilled that his work at GLOBAL TAC in building a formidable homeland security and intelligence partner for the US government has been recognized, along with his distinguished government career, as making him eminently suited for this key role in the administration," said Global Strategies Group (North America) Inc. CEO Dr. John Hillen.